AT RUGGLES CAMP-MEETING.

Items of Interest From "The Ledger's" Own Correspondent on the Grounds

RUGGLES CAMPGROUND, July 30th. The second day of the meeting has come The second day of the meeting has come and gone, and with it came a number of families. Among the new arrivals are: Captain Jacob Miller, John I. Mathews and family. Mrs. Joseph A. Davis, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. George Burrows and daughters, Miss Maggie Hill, John Brodt follows: and family, and Elmer Rudy who has taken board with Nolin and Vicroy.

of Cincinnati. The campers have all been wishing for rain, and they had their wish gratified by a hard rain Friday. Captain Heflin says that all the squirrels have left this neighborhood because he has been out hunting. Everyone is having a good time and enjoying themselves with the exception of the young people who are prohibited from playing croquet on the grounds. In order to play they must go a mile away from the Tabernacle.

SUNDAY, July 31st. This morning bright and early the peo ple began to arrive, and by 11 o'clock there were twenty five hundred on the grounds. This is the smallest crowd known in the history of the meeting for the first Sunday. The threatening weather kept a number at home

Rev. D. Lee Aultman delivered a most eloquent sermon which was attended by a large crowd, the Tabernacle being crowded. He held his vast congregation with him from beginning to end.
